Prayer of St. Cyprian

May Jesus Christ, beloved Son of God, the way that leads to everlasting life, be with you!

Mother Nature has a huge sense of humor. She is the ultimate prankster. If life is a sitcom, Mother Nature is the head writer, and her favorite topic is “Expectations vs Reality.” Humanity’s expectation of winter is tolerable weather, looking forward to Spring. The reality is the transition of weather in its’ seasonal stages. Mother Nature is saying: “I’m not done with winter yet.” She is causing humanity to be patient, tolerant, and cautious. May Mother Nature give us a break with the snow. “Turn the snow machine off!” In the midst of this unpredictable weather, remain safe and warm.

As we enter the Second Week of Lent, take time for prayer, reflection, and maybe spiritual reading. Reflect on Jesus’ passion, death, and his purpose for us. Spend five minutes during your day praying and reflecting.

This Tuesday is the Feast of St. Katherine Drexel. The Church and especially African Americans and Native Americans are grateful for her selflessness and service. We remember her in a special way and pray through her intercession.

I ask that you keep our parish in your daily prayers. Pray for our homebound and sick parishioners. Also, keep in prayer our parishioners who have not returned to Church. Remember to invite someone to worship with us and experience our faith community.

In our Gospel for today’s Mass three of Jesus’ disciples experienced something beyond their imagination and understanding. They experience the Transfiguration of Jesus and the voice of God. They got to see Jesus accepting his mission to Calvary and God saying to them: “This is my beloved Son, listen to him!” May we take a moment to reflect on Jesus’ mission and listen to God to follow Jesus in faith and hope.

*Peace and blessings,
Msgr. Dr. Britto*

Protect me, God: for in you I take refuge. You are my portion and cup, my life is in your hands. I keep you ever before me, for you are my God. You stand at my right hand; I shall not waver. And so my heart is glad and my soul rejoices; my body also rests secure. For you do not leave my life among the dead, or let your servant go down into the pit. You will show me the path of life, fullness of joy in your presence, happiness forever at your right hand. Amen
