Prayer of St. Cyprian

Almighty God, we are reminded through your servant St. Cyprian, of Spirit always within us and your continued presence in us, and of our oneness with you and the Church. May we always grow together and profess you in Faith, Unity and Hope. Guided by the Holy Spirit, we ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

May Jesus Christ, who gives us a new commandment that we love one another as you have loved us, be with you!

The leaves from the trees are turning colors and falling early. It is getting darker every day, the mornings are getting cooler, and Mother Nature is letting us know fall and winter are right around the corner. Our lazy days of summer are quickly coming to an end. May we cherish these last days of warm weather and prepare ourselves for the cold dreary days of winter. Personally, I am not ready for the change in seasons. However, we should take the days as they come and thank God for each day we are given.

As you can see from our parish bulletin, there are several activities planned. All these activities are for the good of our parish, fellowship and marketing. Support these activities in any way you can.

I want to give a shout out to all our grandparents as our country celebrates National Grandparents Day. We honor our grandparents and recognize the unique bond they share with their grandchildren and acknowledge the wisdom and guidance these older generations offer. Happy Grandparents Day!

Our readings for today's Mass challenges us for the second time. Last weeks Gospel challenged us to forgive and not allow our hearts to harden because of being hurt by someone. In today's Gospel, Jesus said to forgive more than once. For many who strive to live the message of the Gospel, this is one of the most difficult virtues to grasp. May we call on Jesus to touch our hearts and minds to live his commandment the way he asks of us.

Peace and Blessings,

Msgr. Dr. Britto

Saint of the Week

St. Cyprian: Born around the 3rd century in North Africa in Carthage, where he received his education. Soon after converting to Christianity, he became bishop in 249 for the Diocese of Carthage. Cyprian was known for his care for the poor, a great orator and scholar. The Diocese of Carthage was under attack by the Emperor. He was confronted by the local clergy who opposed his rise to bishop and return of Catholics who left the Church during the persecution of Christians without first confessing their departure. St. Cyprian preached unity to the Church, faith in our belief and hope in the Church. His feast day is September 16th.
