Prayer of St. Cyprian

Almighty God, we are reminded through your servant St. Cyprian, of Spirit always within us and your continued presence in us, and of our oneness with you and the Church. All praise and glory to Jesus Christ who makes his presence known to us and journey with us daily in our lives.

This month of October is filled with remembrance and kindness.

During this month, we acknowledge Respect Life. We are reminded that life is a gift from God; and not to be destroyed before birth and afterwards. We also remember all those living and surviving Breast Cancer. Prayers go their way for strength, healing, and empowerment.

We also remember Our Blessed Mother Mary during this month. This is called the month of the rosary. Pray the rosary and ask the Blessed Mother to intercede for you to her Son. I encourage you to pray the first decade of the rosary for our parish.

Know of someone who might be interested in becoming Catholic, or want to know more about our Catholic faith, invite them to church. As Disciples on the Mission, we are all called to invite others to Christ, and to our faith.

Our readings for today's Mass reminds us of God's generosity. The generosity he offers to us; He encourages us to do the same. Each of us is gifted with a blessing. We are to share those blessings and not be selfish with them. Sharing God's blessings and our gifts is how we bring God to people and vice versa.

Peace and Blessings,
Msgr. Dr. Britto
