Reflect, Renew, Respond!

Prayer of St. Cyprian

Almighty God, we are reminded through your servant St. Cyprian, of Spirit always within us and your continued presence in us, and of our oneness with you and the Church. FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

May the God's grace and blessings shower upon you!

The month of November is moving along. Next Thursday, November 26th is Thanksgiving Day. We pause on that day to give thanks to God, and all those who made a positive impact in our lives. As every Thanksgiving Day, we will celebrate it with Mass at 10:00 AM. Take the time to join our parish Community on that day to give thanks to God.

I encourage you to keep reflecting on our parish theme: Reflect-Renew-Respond. How can you make this theme a part of your daily spiritual life? How can this theme enrich our parish?

For the past couple of weeks, our country has been experiencing unusually bad weather. From the west coast to the east, floods have ravaged cities and communities. It is obvious global warming is becoming more prevalent. We pray for the people affected by this weather and that they receive resources to comfort their lives.

Don't forget to participate and support the activities and events of our parish. An active parish is a healthy parish; your support is needed so we continue to thrive.

In today's Gospel, Jesus talks about the parable of the talents. Jesus tells the disciples the parable of the talents to impress upon them the need to use their talents well, according to what they have been given. May this be an opportunity to reflect upon how we measure up.

Peace and Blessings,
Msgr. Dr. Britto
